Courting in Cuba

Has changed since the late war on the island. Instead of courting through barred windows, and sitting in the parlor with the whole family present, it is now done in an American style. So it is with our shoes. They are strictly up-to-date in style and quality and are offered at prices that are sure to tempt you to purchase. We are now offering a good many bargains in women's shoes—small sizes in odds and ends at marvelously low prices. If you can wear a size 2, 3 or 4, you can find a decided bargain on our odds and ends table. Come in and look at them.
